Dear Ms. Beasley:

This is in response to a letter from Mr. Richard C. Karl, of your agency, dated 9/28/94 and received today.

There are many companies named "Omega" and I believe you have the wrong one.

We are a small sheet metal fabricating shop of 7 total employees. We fabricate products from stainless steel and sell the scrap to a company which recycles it.

We have absolutely no chemical waste or hazardous substances of any kind, either in our manufacturing process or as waste.

Also, we have never done any business with the Conservation Chemical Company of Gary, IN.

Since your agency is handling this in an urgent manner, we would appreciate a prompt response from you regarding our status in the case.

Please excuse me for being redundant, but I am positive that you have the wrong Omega.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads 'Mary A. Schweigert'.
